School Overview

Cairns School of Distance Education encapsulates the diverse nature of its community and the inclusion of its students with its motto Global Learning. Technological innovation delivers opportunities to students of all ages and provides alternative pathways to becoming independent, resilient, productive and self-sufficient learners. The dynamic learning and flexible curriculum ensures our students will receive the best from their schooling years. Teachers, home tutors, parents and students develop positive and supportive relationships in the flexible learning environment.

All students are welcome in our multicultural school community. Our school values the innovative use of technology to foster an expanding collaborative culture, creating more opportunities for students to connect with the world and each other. Student diversity makes Cairns SDE the pioneering school it is, where diversity is celebrated.

Students and teachers collaborate to establish a positive teaching and learning environment. Students also work independently to solve problems giving them the confidence to question and the opportunity to show initiative. Student-led learning empowers students to take initiative and ownership of their education. They understand the importance of discovery and the processes involved, fostering a growth mindset and the intrinsic motivation required to challenge themselves in preparation for the future.

Cairns School of Distance Education is a connected community. Every member has an important role in each student's learning. Home Tutors, Teachers, Student Leaders and the School Leadership Team provide students with the experience they need through learning, understanding and collaboration. The non-teaching staff also support students and teachers. Students are given a voice through the Student Leader program, building trust and respect throughout the school community.

Students of Cairns School of Distance Education learn in an environment which fosters resilience, confidence, passion, individuality and courage. The connected community develops a safe place where failure is seen as a way of improving yourself and success is a stepping stone to something greater.

"Conscious effort – not strength or intelligence – is the key to unlocking our potential" – Winston Churchill

Principal's Foreword

Introduction

The following report outlines the key strategies that our school has undertaken during 2017. Also included is a detailed view of our school's profile, subject offerings and our environmental impact. The most important asset, our people are outlined in terms of staff demographics and student achievement. The article also highlights the significant achievements that our school has attained over the course of 2017. A summary of our school aims are listed in the table below.

2017 Improvement Priorities	Status
Improvement Priority 1: A caring, inclusive and equitable school that empowers students to achieve learning and wellbeing goals through a safe, supportive and disciplined learning environment.	In progress
Strategy: Review and expand the explicit pastoral care program across the school, and clarify the roles and responsibilities of all teaching staff members within the program using a coaching methodology.	Completed – annual review
Improvement Priority 2: A robust and relevant curriculum that embeds digital literacy and the teaching of science, technology, engineering, the arts and mathematics by connecting students at the global level through languages and cultural experiences.	In progress
Strategy: Review the plan for curriculum delivery across all years of the school defining the extent of adaption to the C2C resource, and the regular and timely reporting of data to the school community connected to what and when teachers should teach and students should learn.	In progress
Improvement Priority 3: A school that supports teachers and tutors to deliver high quality, evidence based teaching practices that connects students globally.	In progress

Strategy: Conduct school-wide consultation to refine the school's pedagogical framework identifying current exemplary practices in the engagement of students, and develop an aligned explicit process of feedback, coaching and professional development.	Completed

Future Outlook

The following priorities are identified for 2018:

- Improvement Priority 1. An inclusive and equitable learning environment, underpinned by the Positive Behaviour for Learning Framework that engages students and communities in local decision-making to support improved outcomes.
- Improvement Priority 2. A robust and relevant curriculum that connects students globally and prepares them for lifelong learning.
- Improvement Priority 3. A school that supports teachers and tutors to deliver high quality, evidence-based teaching practices that connect students globally.

 pre-Prep is a kindergarten program for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, living across 35 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, in the year before school (<https://qed.qld.gov.au/earlychildhood/families/pre-prep-indigenous>).

Characteristics of the Student Body

Cairns School of Distance Education is a co-educational school offering high level teaching and learning to students from Prep to Year twelve.

Our students are from a wide range of situations from across Queensland, Australia and the world. Two types of student enrolment exist:

- Home-based
 - Limited choice: e.g. geographically isolated, medical, itinerant, family responsibilities, or exclusions.
 - By choice.
- School-based. Including state schools and non-state schools

Average Class Sizes

Curriculum Delivery

Our Approach to Curriculum Delivery

Cairns SE affords students the opportunity to access a variety of courses wherever they are located throughout the world. These courses are based on the Australian Curriculum for preparatory to year ten, and year eleven and twelve subjects are approved by the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority. We deliver our services via a combination of media including:

- On-line via Blackboard Collaborate.
- Access of recorded lessons via Blackboard Collaborate.
- Digital versions of curriculum via a USB or CD/DVD.
- Printed versions of our materials upon request for selected year levels.

- Face-to-face interactions via our Field Program and our blended learning program for at-risk and vulnerable students.

Co-curricular Activities

- Field Programs:
 - o Instrumental Music: students are involved in the school orchestra (on-line and face-to-face).
 - o Study days – familiarise students and families with curriculum programs and requirements.
 - o Home Visits – consolidate teacher, home tutor and student relationships through face-to-face observations and assessment.
 - o Annual School camp – develop relationships and group skills through a variety of environmental, outdoor, cultural and sporting activities (often with the inclusion of experts).
 - o Mini-school – consolidates the learning programs that students are undertaking in a face-to-face context.
 - o Celebration Week: swimming program; presentation evening; art show.
 - o Languages and Cultural Activity days.
 - o Technology programs including: robotics, coding, 3D design and make-a-space.
- Rural and Remote Education Access Program funded curricula and professional development workshops.
- Duke of Edinburgh Award.
- Cairns to Karumba bike ride: students involved in fundraising for rural and remote children.
- Eco-schools.
- My Little Free Library.

How Information and Communication Technologies are used to Assist Learning

- Effective digital pedagogy is at the forefront of our e-Learning strategy and is designed to transform learning opportunities for our students. The approach promotes a blended model of learning featuring a balance between virtual and, where possible, face-to-face delivery. Our digital pedagogy is designed to facilitate quality learning experiences for 21st century learners.
- E-Learn training is provided to students, staff or home tutors to assist them with web conferencing and the delivery of relevant lessons to students. It is provided in accordance with the requirements outlined in the Australian Curriculum.
- Training is given to home tutors in a range of ICT programs to assist them with their teaching and tutoring e.g. Microsoft applications (MSITA), social media, cyber safety and search engine use.
- Explicit teaching is delivered by the use of BlackBoard courses as well as the BlackBoard Collaborate webinar platform.
- Use of Video-Linq system to deliver subjects/courses into schools.
- Teachers continually update their skills to ensure proficiency.
- Email return of work and feedback to ensure that our students receive this as quickly as possible.
- Communication with home tutors and students through ICT and various social media applications.

Social Climate

Overview

Our students are educated in a familiar environment where the relationship between the student, the home tutor and the teacher is based on mutual respect and trust. This relationship is an underpinning principle of effective teaching and learning. Our students believe that they get a great education in a safe and supportive learning environment.

There is a growing awareness of and participation in on-line learning communities. Students are increasingly using technology as a way to reduce social and geographical isolation. To facilitate the building of social relationships with other chronologically appropriate peers, we provide a number of school-based camps, mini schools and other shared activities. Specifically we expect that our students will meet with and make friends with their peers, regardless of their learning environment.

Our school is a part of the eSmart program, which aims to deliver skills to students that equip them with the values and behaviours that are appropriate for on-line communication.

Parent and community engagement

Parents are actively involved in our school at many levels. Formal participation is evident at monthly P&C Meetings as well as at our Cairns SDE Biannual Forum. At this forum, the strategic direction of the school is discussed and decided upon for the Quadrennial School Review, as well as the Annual Implementation Plan.

Parents are also vital to the everyday management of the 'homeroom'. This includes setting up a learning space that is suitable for on-line and telephone instruction. Home tutors and parents are all responsible for ensuring that open and regular communication occurs with our teachers and support staff. The monitoring of work rate calendars to confirm students have completed their required work is also a vital aspect of the home tutor role.

Home tutors and parents also have the opportunity to access development programs that improve their tutoring skills and family well-being. This is typically done in association with field activities that occur each term. On-line support is also available on home tutor websites for all Queensland Schools of Distance Education.

Respectful relationships programs

The school has developed and implemented a program or programs that focus on appropriate, respectful and healthy relationships. This is achieved through the development of our Positive Behaviour for Schools program with particular reference to our Student GROWTH program. The GROWTH program focusses on moving students from fixed mindsets to growth mindsets and is heavily based on Carol Dweck's work. Our school is a part of the eSmart program, which aims to deliver skills to students that equip them with the values and behaviours that are appropriate for on-line communication.

School Disciplinary Absences

The following table shows the count of incidents for students recommended for each type of school disciplinary absence reported at the school.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINARY ABSENCES
Type	2015	2016	2017
Short Suspensions – 1 to 10 days	0	0	0
Long Suspensions – 11 to 20 days	0	0	0

Cancellations of Enrolment	8	14	10

Environmental Footprint

Reducing the school's environmental footprint

At Cairns School of Distance Education we have endeavoured to reduce our environmental footprint through a number of key initiatives: REDUCE-REUSE-RECYCLE. These include:

- Continuing the installation of LED lights and power usage monitoring
- Switching off unnecessary devices
- Recycling items such as cardboard, paper and batteries

- We are signed up to Eco-Schools and the Little Free Library projects. These programs aim to develop sustainable practices across our broader school community. The Little Free Library has stations across Cairns and rural areas of Far North Queensland. The development of curriculum materials in print form is via a "by request" process to reduce the amount of printed materials.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT INDICATORS
Years	Electricity kWh	Water kL
2014-2015	176,842	2,741
2015-2016	176,340	3,180
2016-2017	280,869	2,289

The consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool by each school. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on the school's environmental footprint.

Student Destinations

Post-school destination information

The results of the 2017 post-school destinations survey, Next Step – Student Destination Report (2017 Year 12 cohort), will be uploaded to the school's website in September.

Schools with fewer than 5 responses will not have a report available on the post-school destinations of Year 12 completers for reasons of confidentiality.

The report will be available at:

<http://www.cairnssde.eq.edu.au/Supportandresources/Formsanddocuments/Pages/Documents.aspx>

Early leavers information

The destinations of young people who left the school in Years 10, 11 and prior to completing Year 12 are described below.

Our school individually case-manages each student in the senior school. Contact teachers are appointed to ensure that students' work returns are kept up to date. Where there are cases of concern, these are referred to our Student Support Services Team. This referral may result in further intervention strategies being implemented by specialist teachers or external support agencies.
